

PRESERVATION

distillery + farm

BARDSTOWN, KENTUCKY

Old Man Winter

BOURBON FROM THE BLACK HILLS

Product Name: Old Man Winter Bourbon

Type: Four Grain Bourbon

Age: 7-9 Years Old

Bottle Size: 750 mL

Proof: 109.8 (54.9% ABV)

Distilled In: Kentucky/Indiana

Overview: A 6–9-year marriage from unique lots aged in our Bardstown warehouse, these premium barrels were unified and proofed to a flawless 109.8 with Preservation Farm’s viscous limestone water. This union of Preservation’s pot-distilled bourbon and some of our older casks pays homage to the classic flavors of much-sought-after “Dusty” bourbon. A distinct mid-century nuance that beautifully sets it apart in our collection.

Key Factors

- Four Grain Mashbill
- A marriage of casks using wheat and rye as secondary grains
- 1-3 Barrel Micro Batches
- Average Age – Eight Years Old
- Richly Unfiltered
- Nearly Cask Strength

“Oh that good, that’s really good... there’s so much to it, this is great”

- Fred Minnick

Preservation Distillery is dedicated to preserving the art of slow-distilling and traditional whiskey-making, embracing a hands-on approach in our “slow-tech” distillery to craft micro-batches with colossal flavors, driven by an unwavering obsession with quality.